About This Trip •

Escape into the heart of Himachal Pradesh with this unforgettable journey through Kasol, Tosh, and Kheerganga. Surrounded by majestic mountains, serene rivers, and charming villages, this 4-to 5-day trip offers the perfect blend of adventure, nature, and tranquillity. This trip starts with a long but beautiful journey from Delhi to Kasol, which takes about 15 to 16 hours by cab or Volvo AC bus. Along the way, you pass through cities like Chandigarh, Mandi, and Kullu. You arrive in Kasol the next morning and check into your hotel or camp. After resting, you can explore nearby places like the Parvati River, Kasol Nature Park, Kasol Bridge, local cafés, and the market, all within walking distance. The next day, you visit Manikaran to relax in the natural hot springs. From there, you drive to Tosh village and take a short trek to reach your hotel or homestay. Tosh is a peaceful town that offers excellent views of the surrounding mountains. On the fourth day, you hike back to Barshaini and meet your trek guide. From there, you begin your trek to Kheerganga through the green and quiet Parvati Valley. You reach Kheerganga Top by evening and spend the night in tents. In the morning, you wake up to a beautiful sunrise, have breakfast, and trek back down to Barshaini. From there, a cab will take you either directly to Delhi or back to Kasol, where you can catch your bus to Delhi.
